Number of species with >10 images available based on class and basis of record

There are many groups with 1000s of species with >10 images, but which groups have the best coverage?